

English Worksheet

Name:

Class:

Date:

A. Listen to the song and put the lyrics into the right order.

And it was magic at first
When they spoke without sound
But now this world is gonna hurt
You better turn that thing down
turn it around

"You can't blame me. Sure, the killer was my son
But I didn't teach him to pull the trigger of the gun
It's the killing on his TV screen
You can't blame me, it's those images he sees."

And it was magic at first
But let every one down
And now this world's gonna hurt
You better turn it around
turn it around

It was you, it was me, it was every man
We all got the blood on our hands
We only receive what we demand
And if we want hell then hell is what we'll have

"Well you can't blame me - says the media man
Well I wasn't the one that came up with the plan
And I just point my camera at what the people wanna see
Man it's a two way mirror and you can't blame me."

I would turn on the TV
But it's so embarrassing
To see all the other people
I don't know what they mean

"You can't blame me" - says the singer of the song
Or the maker of the movie which he based his life on It's only entertainment and as anyone can see
It's smoke machines and make-up, man, you can't fool me"

And I would turn on the TV
But it's so embarrassing
To see all the other people
Don't even know what they mean

"Well it wasn't me" - says the boy with the gun
Sure I pulled the trigger but it needed to be done
Because life's been killing me ever since it began
You can't blame me 'cause I'm too young"

B. Now answer the following questions:

1. What's the incident being described in the song?
2. How did the narrator find out about the incident?
3. Identify the people quoted in the song.
4. What message is conveyed by the song?
5. According to the song, who or what is to blame for what has happened. Explain?

6. What does the author mean when he says "And it was magic at first but let everyone down."?