

English Worksheet

Name:

Class:

Date:

A. Listen to Martin Luther King speech and fill in the gaps:

"I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and _____:

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal."

I have a dream that one day on the red hills of Georgia, the sons of former slaves and the sons of former slave owners _____.

I have a dream that one day even the state of Mississippi, a state sweltering with the heat of injustice, sweltering with the heat of oppression, _____.

I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where _____ but by the content of their character.

I have a dream today!

I have a dream that one day, down in Alabama, with its vicious racists, with its governor having his lips dripping with the words of "interposition" and "nullification" one day right there in Alabama little black boys and black girls _____ with little white boys and white girls as sisters and brothers.

I have a dream today!

I have a dream that one day every valley _____, and every hill and mountain _____, the rough places _____, and the crooked places _____; "and the glory of the Lord shall be revealed and all flesh shall see it together."

This is our hope, and this is the faith that I go back to the South with." (...)

B: Read the speech again and comment on its meaning.

